OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 26 February 1970

1. [REDACTED] Talked with Miss Jardine, Personal Secretary to Senator Daniel Inouye (D., Hawaii), about his addressing the Senior Seminar on 17 April 1970. I told Miss Jardine that I had arranged with the staff of the Senate Preparedness Subcommittee for the use of their Preparedness hearing room on that afternoon if the Senator would be willing to speak to the entire Senior Seminar class which numbers 30. Miss Jardine said she would take this up with the Senator and be back in touch. Later in the day she advised that Senator Inouye would be glad to meet with the entire group.

2. [REDACTED] At his request, I met with Bill Woodruff, on the staff of the Senate Appropriations Committee. With reference to the discussion on the floor of the Senate yesterday (principally by Senators Mathias and Mansfield), Woodruff asked if we could provide him with the total number of people in Laos, the number of these who are former military personnel and whether either of these numbers have increased since the Defense Appropriations bill was passed on 20 December 1969. Woodruff added that following [REDACTED] briefing on Laos here, he reported to Senator Russell the grave nature of the situation of the Plaine des Jarres and this was very timely and useful information.

3. [REDACTED] In followup to our conversation yesterday Bernard Dobranski, Administrative Assistant to Representative William T. Murphy (D., Ill.), said that the Congressman had talked to Representative William Broomfield (R., Mich.) concerning a briefing on Red China, which they would like to have take place in Mr. Murphy's office preferably in the morning on a date to be suggested by us.

4. [REDACTED] Called on Senator Stephen Young (D., Ohio) in response to his request and gave him a general briefing on the background and current situation regarding our role in Laos. See Memo for Record.

5. [REDACTED] In the absence of Chairman Rivers, of the House Armed Services Committee, I briefed Messrs. Blandford and Slatinshek, of the Committee staff, on the background and present situation regarding our Laos operations. Blandford promised to inform Chairman Rivers as soon as he was available, possibly not before the first of the week. Slatinshek asked for a breakdown of our financial and logistical support to the Laotian guerrillas, i.e. amount spent for salaries of indigenous personnel, food, clothing, ammunitions, weapons, air support, etc.

6. [REDACTED] Called at the office of Senator Peter Dominick, who is on the Agency Subcommittee, and in his absence briefly outlined the Laotian situation to Walter Morgan, the Senator's Special Assistant for Armed Services Committee matters.

7. [REDACTED] Called at the office of Senator Henry Jackson, who is on the Agency Subcommittee, and, due to his unavailability, summarized the Laotian situation for Miss Dorothy Fosdick who handles Agency matters for the Senator and she promised to pass on the information to him.

8. [REDACTED] During a chance encounter, John Finney, of the New York Times, said public concern over the Laos situation was reaching major proportions and was likely to "force" the publication of the full record of the Symington Subcommittee hearings on this subject. Finney also asked about our hiring of Green Berets, to which I replied that I only know what I read in the papers and didn't believe that.

9. [REDACTED] Delivered a personal letter from the Director to the office of Representative Jim Wright (D., Texas).

6. [REDACTED] In response to his earlier request I briefed Bill Woodruff, on the staff of the Senate Appropriations Committee, on the numbers of Agency personnel in Laos and also provided him with a breakdown of the cost of the paramilitary program there for FY 1970. (See Memo for the Record for details.)

7. [REDACTED] Met with Ed Braswell, on the staff of the Senate Armed Services Committee, and briefed him on the situation in Laos using the briefing material used by Mr. Maury in the briefing of Senator Stephen Young. Braswell was most interested in this. He commented that Senator Stennis had indicated to him this morning that he wanted to receive a briefing from the Pentagon on what was going on in Laos. At that time Braswell suggested that the Chairman also receive a briefing from the Agency and the Senator said he wanted to do this. I told Braswell we were available to do this at Senator Stennis' convenience. Braswell mentioned in passing that the Pentagon has refused to provide Senator Symington with a briefing on B-52 raids in Laos. He said General Ryan has declined to even see Symington on this.

8. [REDACTED] Met with Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, to discuss his recent request for the two Czechs: [REDACTED]

I told Sourwine that he had a clear claim for [REDACTED] at such time as he could be made available. (I indicated that this would not be feasible for some time yet). I also advised Sourwine that we had a prior specific request from the House Internal Security Subcommittee for [REDACTED] and therefore we would be unable to honor his request for him. I added that I doubted that there would be much interest in [REDACTED] 25X1A and that he does not desire to make any public statements at the present time. Sourwine accepted all of this and merely asked that, if the House Subcommittee did not use [REDACTED] testimony, the Senate Subcommittee would like to talk with him. Sourwine feels that Senator Hruska, being of Czech descent, would be very much interested in him.

[redacted] In response to her call on Friday, told Mrs. Edna Pearson, in the office of Senator Stennis (D., Miss.), that we had written [redacted] on 4 February that we did not have a suitable vacancy. This apparently is a routine request on behalf of a constituent and Mrs. Pearson thanked us for the information.

2. [redacted] Based upon the advice of [redacted] DD/I, and in the Congressman's absence, told Bernard Dobranski, Administrative Assistant to Representative William T. Murphy (D., Ill.), that [redacted] were apparently still under house arrest and closed out the Congressman's request of Friday for this information.

[redacted] Lou Gerber, in the office of Senator Stephen Young (D., Ohio), called to request a briefing for the Senator on "this business in Laos" either 4:30 this afternoon or 9:00 a.m. tomorrow. I tried to get Mr. Gerber to be more specific, but he said he just did not know what the Senator had in mind. I suggested that perhaps the Senator might want to receive his briefing from the Department of State, but Mr. Gerber said the Senator had said it would be nice to hear the views of the CIA. I reminded Mr. Gerber that we could not discuss operational activities and he said he realized this and was sure that the Senator did also. Not being able to either dissuade or clarify matters further, I told Mr. Gerber that we would look into it and be back in touch.

7. [REDACTED] Yesterday received a call from Ted Darby, Security Duty Officer, who said that Marshall Laynam, in the office of Representative James Wright, had called to inquire about the death of J. C. Maerkl, an Air America helicopter pilot in Laos. I called Laynam back to say that I knew none of the details beyond the press reports, and that he should call Air America. He said he had been unable to reach anyone at the Air America office which was presumably closed because of the holiday. I said I would see if I could get someone familiar with the case to call him.

8. [REDACTED] Called Representative William E. Minshall (R., Ohio), of the Defense Subcommittee of House Appropriations Committee, in response to his query at the Director's briefing on 3 and 5 February regarding the Soviet T-62 tank. I told Minshall this tank, which first appeared in 1961, had probably been in development for some five years. Minshall said he was much concerned about the foul up in the American tank program and he would like further details, particularly performance characteristics, about the Soviet T-62 program for comparison. I told him we would have the answer in a few days (which [REDACTED] of OSR is preparing).

Miss Jardine, Personal Secretary to Senator Daniel Inouye (D., Hawaii), called concerning my request that the Senator address the Senior Seminar on April 17th. Miss Jardine said the Senator would be happy to talk with a group of 15 people in his office on the afternoon of the 17th but indicated that space limitations would prevent his talking with a larger group. After talking with Mr. Shumate, of OTR, I told Miss Jardine that we would select 15 members of our Senior Seminar to hear the Senator but, of course, would prefer to have all 30 members of the group present if this could be arranged. It was agreed that we would both look into possibilities along this line and be back in touch.

George Murphy, on the staff of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, called to say that he had no record of our having sent a followup letter from the Director to the Committee providing information on the Runge case in response to Congressman Holifield's request to the Director's last briefing of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy. After checking our files, I advised Murphy that we had, in fact, delivered such a letter on 24 March 1969 and a second letter on 4 April 1969. After double checking his records, Murphy confirmed that this was the case.

1. [REDACTED] Met with Senator Albert Gore (D., Tenn.), Chairman of the International Organization and Disarmament Affairs Subcommittee of Senate Foreign Relations, to review plans for the Director's briefing on Monday, 2 March. Senator Gore said that he thought we should cover approximately the same ground covered last year, particularly emphasizing Soviet and Chinese Communist strategic weapons, both offensive and defensive. Senator Gore said he would like us to project our estimates concerning these weapons programs, and enemy intentions regarding them, as far into the future as possible. Gore said that while he could not predict what questions might be asked by Subcommittee members, he saw no need for the Director to include the Middle East in his prepared statement.

2. [REDACTED] Called on Senator George Murphy (R., Calif.) and offered to brief him on significant current developments. He referred me to his Assistant Richard Spears who handles Armed Services matters for the Senator. I briefed Spears, on a Secret level, on recent developments regarding Soviet weapons and the situation in Middle East and Southeast Asia.

3. [REDACTED] Representative Peter Frelinghuysen spoke to the Agency's Mid-Career Course, making a special point of the fact that the Foreign Affairs Committee, of which he is a member, was "flying blind" and receiving little or no up-to-date information from its own staff or the executive agencies. Afterwards I told Frelinghuysen we would be glad to try to respond informally to any specific questions he might have in the future.

4. [REDACTED] In a chance encounter, Senator Margaret Chase Smith said she would appreciate an Agency situation briefing in the near future and would be in touch with us.

5. [REDACTED] During a brief conversation, Senator J. W. Fulbright commented (in his usual facetious fashion) that in the current hearings on Southeast Asia he was "learning a lot of things he never knew before" including the fact that "you folks seem to be doing the work of the Lord out there."

6. [REDACTED] George Murphy, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, asked whether in view of the unavailability of Senator Pastore on Tuesday, 3 March, the Director's appearance could be put over until Wednesday, 4 March at 10:00 a.m. I said I would check with the Director and let him know.

7. [REDACTED] Met with Frank Slatinshek, House Armed Services Committee staff, whom I briefed on the Middle East situation, developments in Laos, and recent Soviet missile tests.

Slatinshek asked some questions about what the Soviets, Japanese and Chinese Communists were doing in the field of using high-voltage electronic microscopes in the development of micro-miniaturized computers. He said he had been told recently by Dr. Fernandez Moran of the Fermi Institute at the University of Chicago, that the Soviets, Japanese and ChiComs were working intensively in this connection, using a powerful microscope "in reverse" to develop micro-miniaturized computer circuits and that this technology might be important in weapons application. Slatinshek was concerned that this might result in a major breakthrough in weaponry, particularly with regard to the ABM. I said I would consult with the experts and report back.

8. [REDACTED] After checking with [REDACTED] Cuban Operations Group, WH Division, I called Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, and told him that the list of names that had been left out of the Castro testimony was inadvertent and that it is all right to include them for publication.

He said [REDACTED] carries a Cuban passport and is the working captain of a Cuban ship, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] a fishing vessel. He said there are other Russians in the crew. He said there is a Cuban captain (for show) and the Russian captain who runs the boat. Sourwine said his source told him this man is a Russian naval officer in the Russian navy of current rank. I told him we would look into this and be back in touch.

10. [REDACTED] Talked to Mr. Arthur Kuhl, Chief Clerk, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, who requested that the transcript of the Director's testimony of 23 April 1969 be made available for Committee use each day next week starting Monday, 23 February, and on 2 March for the Gore Subcommittee meeting with the Director.

11. [REDACTED] Received a call from Miss Nadine Jacobson, in the office of Senator Charles Percy (R., Ill.), who told me that Senators Percy and John Cooper (R., Ky.) would appreciate it very much if Messrs. Dave Brandwein and Bruce Clarke could meet with them at 2:00 p.m. tomorrow in Senator Percy's office, room 1109, New Senate Office Building, for the briefing on the Soviet and Chinese missile threat. After checking the offices of Messrs. Brandwein and Clarke, I confirmed the time of the meeting with Miss Jacobson.

1. [REDACTED] At the request of Representative Bill Nichols (D., Ala.), which was relayed through Frank Slatinshek, House Armed Services Committee staff, I accompanied [REDACTED] WH Division, to a meeting with Mr. James Amaro, of the University of Alabama. At our meeting with Mr. Amaro in Mr. Slatinshek's office, it was learned that his field of interest is the economic and labor situation in the Dominican Republic. In brief, Mr. Amaro was advised that these matters are within the jurisdiction of AID. There is little this Agency can do to assist him in this matter. No further action is required.

2. [REDACTED] Miss Elma Henderson, in the office of Representative Spark Matsunaga (D., Hawaii), called to ask how to address a letter from the Congressman on behalf of an individual who has applied for summer employment, and I told her.

25X1A

3. [REDACTED] called saying he had been referred to us by Senator J. W. Fulbright's (D., Ark.) office and was interested in employment prospects. I made arrangements for him to get in touch with [REDACTED] Personnel.

Gehrig said he would check on these with his staff and be back in touch with me. I told him that we would like to keep the group as small as possible but had no objection if he wanted to bring Craig Voorhees as well as Bill Parker.

5. [redacted] Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security

Subcommittee staff, called about the testimony of [redacted]

25X1A

[redacted] which had been reviewed by our people. Sourwine said that our sources had inadvertently deleted a list of Cuban nationals which had been attached as an appendix to the [redacted] testimony and which the Subcommittee had obtained through overt sources from the State Department. He saw no reason why this should be deleted and said he plans to keep it in the testimony, identified as being from State sources, unless we have reasons to object. I told him I saw no reason for the Agency to object but I said I would look into it.

Sourwine also expressed some concern over several deletions which we had made, specifically deletion of questions which Sourwine had asked and material which one of the witnesses apparently wants to use in a book. I told Sourwine that I thought the procedure which he had used in these cases in the past (use of a shorthand reporter) was far better than the system used by Tarabochia in these two cases. I also indicated that our office proposed to monitor these cases more closely in the future.

6. [redacted] In response to his request that we provide a briefing on the Soviet and Chinese missile threats for Senators Cooper and Percy and staff which Bill Miller and Scott Cohen would also attend, I advised Scott Cohen, on the staff of Senator Charles Percy (R., Ill.), that the Director had indicated he would be glad to have the two Senators briefed alone excluding the staff members. I told Cohen that, as I had expected yesterday, the Director wants to limit extremely sensitive briefings of this sort to Senators only. I also indicated that the Director had talked at some length with Senator Cooper about this problem and Cohen did not press the matter further. I told him if he wished to schedule the briefing for the Senators alone to let me know.

8. [REDACTED] In a telephone conversation with Jim Lowenstein, Consultant, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, I confirmed the Director's availability to testify before Senator Gore's Subcommittee on International Organization and Disarmament Affairs on Monday, 2 March at 10:00 a.m. Lowenstein said the Committee would like the Director to cover exactly the same ground covered in his appearance before this Subcommittee last year except they would also want to hear something about conventional anti-aircraft in which there was considerable interest. He said he thought we could cover the necessary ground in the morning and no afternoon session would be necessary.

In the same conversation Lowenstein gave me his impressions of the Vietnam hearings yesterday and today. See Memo for Record for details.

1. [REDACTED] Accompanied John Warner to a meeting with Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, to discuss possible amendments to section 783(b) of the Internal Security Act of 1950. Sourwine was most receptive to the proposal and advanced suggestions on his own. It was agreed that we would both give additional thoughts to the amendments and get together at a later date.

2. [REDACTED] Jim Lowenstein, Consultant, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called to say Senator Gore, Chairman of the Subcommittee on International Organization and Disarmament Affairs, would appreciate a briefing of his Subcommittee by the Director on Soviet and ChiCom strategic capabilities, offensive and defensive, on Monday, 2 March. I said I would call him back after consulting with the Director.

3. [REDACTED] Frank Slatinshek, House Armed Services Committee staff, called to say that a constituent of Representative Bill Nichols (D., Ala.) was in town and had some possibly interesting information regarding the Dominican Republic which he would like to pass to the Agency. I told Slatinshek an Agency officer would be available for a meeting in Slatinshek's office at 0900 on Wednesday, 18 February 1970.

5. [redacted] Talked with Ed Braswell, on the staff of the Senate Armed Services Committee, about the SI and TK security clearances held by Donald Lynch who has come to the Committee staff from the Bureau of the Budget. Braswell indicated that Lynch was occupying a slot on the Preparedness Subcommittee staff but would be working directly for him (Braswell) on revisions of the law relating to military procurement. He said it was possible that Senator Stennis would want Lynch to sit in on an occasional hearing in the SI-TK category and asked if we could continue Lynch's clearances if we had no objection. I told Braswell I saw no reason why this could not be done.

6. [redacted] Talked with Bill Woodruff, on the staff of the Senate Appropriations Committee, who asked if we would get for him the order-of-battle figures which were included in [redacted] briefing on Laos last week. I told him I would be glad to do this. 25X1A

25X1A

Woodruff also asked if I would mention to [redacted] Woodruff's interest in getting our total intelligence effort dollar figure when it was available. I have passed this on to [redacted] of OPPB. 25X1A

25X1

7. [redacted] Jim Gehrig, Chief Counsel, Senate Space Committee, called and said he would like to meet with Dave Brandwein at his convenience early next week for a briefing which would bring him up-to-date on Soviet space activity. He said he would also like to have Bill Parker and Craig Voorhees, of his staff, attend if this was agreeable. Gehrig said that he could come to Headquarters for the briefing. I will check with Mr. Brandwein on this.

8. [redacted] Scott Cohen, on the staff of Senator Charles Percy (R., Ill.), called and requested a briefing on the Soviet and Chinese missile threat for Senators Cooper and Percy and Bill Miller, of Cooper's staff, and himself for their background use in connection with the upcoming ABM debate. I told Cohen I could foresee problems on this because it has been the Director's practice to limit briefings in these special briefing categories to members and committee staff personnel designated by the Chairman of their committee after mutual agreement with the Director. I told Cohen I would raise the question however and be back in touch.

[REDACTED] On the Director's instructions, I called on Senator Gale McGee (D., Wyo.) telling him of our concern over the distortions and misconceptions regarding our role in the Phoenix program as reflected in statements and publicity about the upcoming Senate Foreign Relations Committee hearings on the subject. I recalled for McGee the origins of the program, its present objectives and the Agency's limited role therein. McGee said he would do everything to keep the hearings on the track, and made clear that he shared our concern over what he considered irresponsible comments of some of his colleagues on the Committee.

4. [REDACTED] Met with Russ Blandford, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, whom I briefed on recent developments in Laos and Jordan; indications of Soviet interest in high-powered gas dynamic lasers; and Soviet work on nuclear radiation.

On the question of how best to keep Chairman Rivers briefed on current matters, Blandford indicated he himself had difficulty in keeping in touch with Rivers and in keeping straight in his head various items he receives from the Pentagon, CIA and elsewhere. He therefore proposed that when we have items of major and urgent significance we brief Rivers ourselves. Blandford pointed out however that Rivers is not interested in substantive items but rather in developments that may get press attention or arouse political controversy.

Like Blandford, Slatinshek said Rivers really is not interested in any developments which do not have political or publicity value.

1. [REDACTED] Elizabeth Lewis, in the office of Representative Richard Bolling (D., Mo.), called for a constituent for information on military intelligence satellites. She said the Air Force had sent some information to the constituent and that someone on the staff of the Armed Services Committee had suggested that she call the Agency. I explained why we could not be of any help and she seemed fully satisfied.

2. [REDACTED] accompanied by [REDACTED] met with Representative Ogden Reid (R., N. Y.) and updated information previously provided on the Mid-East, Sino-Soviet relations, and Vietnam. 3. [REDACTED] Met with Mr. Frank Slatinshek, House Armed Services Committee staff, and discussed the New York Times article of 6 February concerning the Soviet satellite destroyer. On the question of Committee schedule of briefings, Mr. Slatinshek suggested it would be well to check with Mr. Blandford after his return to the city tomorrow.

4. [REDACTED] Talked to Mr. Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, who confirmed the visit to Headquarters for Thursday, 12 February, at 9:00 a.m. for further Agency briefing. 8. [Redacted] Talked with Steve Wexler, Counsel, Senate Subcommittee on Education of the Committee on Labor and Public Welfare, about the Subcommittee hearings on Senator Dominick's bill to establish a U.S. Foreign Service Corps (S. 939). Wexler felt that the two instances in which the Agency was mentioned in the hearings on this bill could be handled without any direct or formal response from the Agency. See Memo for the Record for details.

9. [Redacted] I advised Peggy McDonald, in the office of Senator Henry M. Jackson, that [Redacted] and other Agency officials had carefully reviewed the qualifications of [Redacted] about whom the Senator had contacted us but that we do not have a suitable opening for him and would not want to raise his hopes by arranging a personnel interview at this time unless the Senator was particularly anxious that we do so. Miss McDonald said she would inform the Senator.

Excerpts of pertinent parts are being forwarded to the Director of Personnel and the Cover Division.

7. [REDACTED] In response to his request, I provided Bill Woodruff, on the staff of the Senate Appropriations Committee, with a copy of FMSAC's blind commentary on the Richard Lyons' column in the New York Times on the Soviet satellite destroyer. Woodruff said he would be available to visit the Agency on Thursday, 12 February, along with Ralph Preston for a briefing on Agency programs. I asked him to stay on for lunch.

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

1. [REDACTED] Met with Mr. Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, who advised that he will try to work out a time with Bill Woodruff to visit the Agency while the House is in recess next week. He will try for Thursday, the 12th. I also confirmed with him the briefing for Representative Joseph Addabbo (D., N.Y.) for Monday at 2:00 p.m., room HB18. He was most appreciative.

I briefed Mr. Preston on several items of current intelligence interest. (See Memorandum for the Record.)

25X1A

2. [REDACTED] Delivered to Mr. Don Shasteen, Administrative Assistant to Senator Carl Curtis (R., Nebr.), a sealed envelope from [REDACTED] (See Journal item of 23 January.)

3. [REDACTED] Received a call from Carol Tuchmann, in the office of Representative Ogden Reid (R., N.Y.). Representative Reid would appreciate, if possible, a briefing early in the week updating the information previously furnished him on the Middle East. I thanked Miss Tuchmann for the call and told her I would be back in touch with her on Monday.

4. [REDACTED] I advised George Murphy, on the staff of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, that at the present time the Director has no commitments for March 3 through 5 which would preclude his briefing the Joint Committee on one of those days. Murphy said he planned to concentrate on March 3 as the most likely date and said he would be back in touch with us.

5. [REDACTED] Met with Frank Slatinshek, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee. In response to his question to Mr. Maury concerning the possible reintroduction of missiles to Cuba, I satisfied his question by detailing for him in general terms the sequence of events during January leading to the identification of an increase in SA-2 cannisters in Cuban storage sites. I also touched on the continuing interest in this problem that is focused in the Interagency Cuban Panel. In response to his earlier question concerning a news report that the Pueblo is "to sail for Reds," I told him that the status of the Pueblo at dockside does not appear to have changed during the last year.

Mr. Slatinshek advised that ACDA has requested legislative authority to supplement the pay for military officers holding appointed positions in the Disarmament Agency. He requested an outline of the Agency's practice in computing such pay and allowances under the CIA National Security Act authority. After checking with Mr. Harry Fisher, in the Office of Personnel, I told Mr. Slatinshek the computation is relatively simple. The pay and allowances are totaled by the individual's parent service and this figure is used as a simple deduction from the current salary for the position. Mr. Slatinshek was very careful to point out that the Committee is merely looking to the Agency as one having many years of administrative experience in this matter. He requested additionally, if available without too much effort, a breakdown of the specific pay and allowance items that are utilized in computing the military pay total.

I briefed Mr. Slatinshek on several items of current intelligence interest. (See Memorandum for the Record.)

6. [REDACTED] At his request, I met with Ed Braswell, on the 25X1A staff of the Senate Armed Services Committee, to discuss the article by Richard D. Lyons in today's New York Times on the Soviet satellite destroyer. I briefed Braswell on the situation using information provided by [REDACTED] and David Brandwein. Braswell was interested in this and anticipated questions from the Armed Services Committee members on it. I told him our people were preparing a commentary on the article and I would be happy to provide him with a copy. Braswell said he thought Senator Margaret Chase Smith (R., Maine) would be particularly interested in it.

6. [REDACTED] Met with Mr. Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, and reviewed with him the budget summary forwarded with a cover note of 4 February from Mr. [REDACTED] [REDACTED], OPPB, Mr. Preston indicated that this summary is more than adequate for the Chairman's needs at the present. 25X1A

Later in the day I received a call from Mr. Preston who advised that Representative Joseph Addabbo (D., N. Y.) had been unable to attend the Director's briefings Tuesday and today due to a death in the family. He would appreciate, if possible, a summary of the Agency briefing on Monday at 2:00 p.m. by an Agency representative. Mr. Preston told me he offered Representative Addabbo the transcripts of the meetings for his review but that the Representative would like a briefing by an Agency representative, which he feels is in keeping with the importance of the briefings presented by the Director. I told Mr. Preston I would relay the request and be back in touch with him in the morning.
